

WAGE Away Day – 6th of October 2021

Advancing training in the post-COVID era

13.00	Welcome	Mrs Hayley Heard WAGE President
Session 1- A national perspective on training the GI workforce
Chairs- Dr Neil Hawkes and Dr Andrew Yeoman
13.05	How can specialist societies help to improve training?	Dr Reena Sidhu Chair BSG Education Committee
13.35	Challenges and potential solutions in surgical training	Prof Wyn Lewis Head of surgical school HEIW
14.05	Developing the hepatology workforce	Prof Jon Dillon Consultant Hepatologist, BSG Vice President for Hepatology
14.35	Discussion
15.00	Coffee break and sponsor sessions (6)
Session 2- Developing a training strategy for the Endoscopy workforce in Wales
Chairs- Dr. Jeff Turner and Hayley Heard
15.30	Developing the endoscopy workforce in Wales	Lisa Llewellyn Executive Nursing Lead for Workforce Development NEP
15.50	The South West Endoscopy Training Academy model	Dr Paul Duncley Consultant Gastroenterologist & Director SW Academy
16.10	Supporting the wider endoscopy workforce	Dr Phedra Dodds Nurse Consultant & lead for JETS e-workforce project
16.25	Steps to the development of an Endoscopy Training Strategy for Wales	Dr Neil Hawkes Clinical Lead NEP & Endoscopy Training Management Group (HEIW)
16.40	Discussion
17.00	CLOSE	